

NWGN

Evaluation PPP's in Food & Nutrition Security

Ans Eilander – Co Chair NWGN

Tuesday 18 May 2021

Previous evaluations

IOB 2012-2016:

- Continue with public-private partnerships for leverage and impact, BUT
 - Ensure additionality
 - Awareness of potential conflicts between public and private interests
 - Public interests are anchored in project design and monitoring
- A study comparing different partnership designs and financing modalities of public-private partnerships is recommended

PPP lab 2014-2018 recommended 3 building blocks to deliver on SDGs:

- Strategize for systemic change
- Improve partnerships' fitness to enable change
- Rethink risk and blend finance

Evaluation PPP's in FNS by PrC

Aim:

To systematically evaluate Dutch experiences and lessons learnt in working in PPPs that are specifically aimed at addressing food and nutrition security:

- Engaging with the private sector
- Inclusion of specific target groups
- Working in partnership

Methodology:

- Interviews with PPP and FNS experts
- Comparison of instruments
- Literature review

Preliminary findings

Including nutrition in PPP's

- Despite FDOV & SDGP specific calls on nutrition outcomes, response was rather limited
- AIM (FDOV) and Good Farming Good Food (SDGP) formulated specific nutrition objectives
- Main learnings:
 - Holistic approach of food system is needed, including demand creation and food policy frameworks
 - Focus on food environments
 - Ensure inclusivity of target group
 - Formulating nutrition sensitive outcome indicators
 - Closing the gap between agriculture and public health disciplines
 - In the limited projects that formulated nutrition outcomes, conflict of interest / tensions did not play a big role

Sustainability & scalability

- Local private sector has an important role in sustaining and scaling ambitions
- After the PPP project ended, if elements continued, these were mostly elements executed by the private sector

Guidance to improve working in PPP's

- Stimulating engagement of partners
- Preventing potential conflicts
- Enhancing mutual accountability